Issue 5

As most of you know, our away trip to Buelton took a near-fatal turn this year, as our Golfari president, Cliff Keith, had a massive heart attack at our last course. He's a very lucky man and we're all fortunate that he had successful bypass surgery and a defibrillator installation and is finally home in Desert Hot Springs recovering. Other than the last day it was a good trip and we were happy to have Michele Welch, Jim Straton and Layne Strelie back playing with us.

June's tournament was at The Golf Club at Glen Ivy where we had a very small field of players. The fairways were in bad condition and the greens were unreadable. The pros in the golf shop told us they are beginning to put money back into the course so we'll probably wait a couple more years before going back there.

Remember to check the website for the information on our away trip to Branson, MI and send in your deposits.

MEMBER NEWS

Our Golfari founder and author of "Joe's Rules" Joe Mansis passed away two weeks ago from a brain hemorrhage. All of us send our sincere sympathy to his family and of course to Sally. We were so hoping to introduce Joe to all of our new members at the upcoming Golfarama tournament in November. We will, of course, continue to use Joe's Rules in all of our Golfari tournaments.

MAY/JUNE QUOTATION:

"If you want to hit a 7 iron as far as Tiger Woods does, simply try to layup just short of a water hazard."

MAY/JUNE LAUGHS:

A guy, who has been stranded on a desert island for 10 years, sees an unusual speck on the horizon. “It’s not a ship”, he thinks to himself.

As the speck gets closer and closer, he begins to rule out the possibilities of a small boat or even a raft. In a few minutes a drop-dead gorgeous blonde woman emerges from the surf wearing a wetsuit and scuba gear.

She approaches the shocked guy and says, “Tell me, how long has it been since you’ve had a cigarette?” “Ten years”, he replies.

With that she reaches over and unzips a waterproof pocket on her left sleeve and pulls out a pack of cigarettes.

He takes one, lights it and takes a long drag. “Man oh man!! Is that ever good!”

“And how long has it been since you’ve had a shot of whiskey?” she asks.
Trembling he replies “Ten years!”

She reaches over and unzips a pocket on her right sleeve, pulls out a flask and hands it to him. He opens the flask, takes a long swig and exclaims “That’s absolutely fantastic!”

At this point she begins to slowly unzip the long zipper that runs down the front of her wet suit, looks at him seductively and asks, “How long has it been since you’ve played around?”

With tears in his eyes the guy falls to his knees and cries.....”Oh sweet Jesus! Don’t tell me you’ve got golf clubs in there too!!!!”
